Mr. Brad Codere gave a Superintendent/K-12 Principal Report. The school year wrapped up with exams in the high school and picnics in the elementary school. The end of the year breakfast for staff was held on Friday morning followed by an in-service and records day in the afternoon. The Commencement Ceremony, held on May 28, and the Kindergarten graduation on June 8 went very well. Both events were broadcast live via Facebook. We currently have 27 students signed up for next year's Kindergarten as well as 11 for the Young 5's program. The summer school program with Hancock and Chassell will begin on June 21.

Mr. Jack Johnson gave the Elementary Coordinator's Report. We have 32 students signed up for the Northern Lights Summer Learning program and another 11 enrolled in the Summer Adventure program. Elementary report cards will be mailed home this week. Elementary Track and Field Days were held for grades K-5 on June 2 and 3. Students in grades 6 and 7 participated in three days of field trips in lieu of being able to attend Camp Nesbit. Activities included a tour of the Quincy Mine, a presentation by the Chocolay Raptor Center, the ropes course at Michigan Tech and a day long picnic at McLain's State Park. Kindergarten graduation was held on June 8 and was very well attended. The PTO provided ice cream certificates and flowers to the students and staff involved with the ceremony. The PTO also held a pasty sale and donated the 6th grade proceeds back to the class.

Mr. Brad Codere read the Athletic Director's Report.

Mr. Brad Fortin gave a Maintenance Report.

Mr. Brad Codere gave a Transportation Report.
